Game 2 Recap

The Camden Riversharks were defeated by the Somerset Patriots by a final score of 7-1 tonight, in game two of a day-night double header. Camden pitcher Ryan DiPietro (1-3) suffered the loss, after pitching 5 innings, allowing 6 runs on 6 hits, and striking out 3. Somerset's Jason Standridge (1-2) recorded the win, as he pitched 5 shutout innings, scattering 3 hits, and striking out 6 batters. With the loss, both the Riversharks and Patriots' records are at 1-1.

Somerset's speed allowed them to plate early runs in the nightcap of today's doubleheader. With designated hitter Travis Anderson already onboard, first baseman Joe Burke hit what looked like a typical double-play ball. But his hustle down line allowed him to beat the throw, and to keep the inning alive. He was followed up by right fielder Mike Rodriguez, who blooped a single over the head of Riversharks' third baseman Brett Bonvechio. Center fielder Sean Smith then drew a walk that let second baseman Matt Hagen approach the plate. Hagen hit a seeing-eye single between shortstop and third base, that gave Burke and Rodriguez a ticket home, and a 2-0 Somerset advantage.

The Patriots continued to fire away in the 5th inning, scoring a total of four runs. Anderson led off the top half of the 5th with a double to left-center. Rodriguez would then step to the plate and lace a single up the middle, which plated Anderson. The speedy right fielder then stole 3rd, and scored when catcher Frederick Torres gunned the ball over the head of third baseman Brian Burgamy. After Smith drew a walk, Hagen blasted a triple off the right field wall, allowing Smith to score all they way from 1st base. With Hagen on 3rd, third baseman Jeff Nettles hit a fly ball to deep left field, letting Hagen stroll home for a 6-0 visitor's lead.

Before handing the game over to Scott Van Es to secure the 8th and 9th innings, The Patriots added one more insurance run in the 7th inning. Smith led off the inning with a double to left field, and scored when Nettles hit a double to the same spot. Camden waited until the 9th inning to finally touch home plate, when Brian Burgamy took Van Es' first pitch of the inning over the left field wall. The home run was Burgamy's 5th of the year. That run would be the only hit Van Es would allow, giving the Patriots an impressive 7-1 win.

The Riversharks and Patriots will play game three of their four-game set tomorrow at 5:35PM. RHP Kevin Mannix (1-0, 3.52) will take the mound for the Riversharks, and he will be opposed by RHP Jim Magrane (9-2, 2.52) from Somerset. Limited seating for the game is still available.
